THE subscriber proposes to open in the city of Washington, on the 15th of September, a Classical and Mathematical School of a high order. For this purpose he has secured a central and very desirable location on the south side of F street, three-doors west from 12th.

The number of pupils will be insisted to twenty. To these he will devote his exclusive attention, in proparing them for college or for business and professional pursuits.

It is the design to make this a permanent Classical and Mathematical School, with a number as limited that each pupil may recent a large chare of the teacher's attention; and the result of his own experience and that of others convince him that he can in this way accomplish much more convince him that he can in this way accomplish much more tuported and rapid progress in study, then can be done in a school of a larger number or of a more miscalianeous character.

school of a larger number or of a more minesissation.

From the views expressed to the subscriber by intelligent persons, it is bulleved there are many in this city who desire the establishment of such a school at the present time; and all of his energies, suided by his past experience in the instruction of youth, will be devoted to making it, in all respects, worthy of the soutdeness and patronage of those who may be disposed to place their som under his charge. Terms, per quarter, $12.50.

OR THE INFANT PILGRIM.

BY ANNE WOODSOFFE, suther of "Michael Kemp." In two volumes. R. Carter & Brothers.

"A charming book, full of deep, trus, and glowing sentiment, with lively glimpses of character, pen-portraits and sketches, which keep the interest ever alive, and withal wise instruction is so happily blended that the pleasure of the book is only equalled by its profit. It is a better book than "The Wide, Wide World," which has been so widely and justly popular, and we are sure that those who read this will be gisd that we have called their attention to it."—New Fork Observer.

INESS. By Dr. Kitto.

"This is a work of great interest, from one of the most learned and accomplished writers of the age, revealing the mysteries of the world in which those live who have been deprived of the sense of sight or hearing. Ever since his boyhood, for more than thirty years, Dr. Kitto has passed a life of great activity as a scholar, in a state of the most intense deafness to which any living creature can be subjected. His account of himself, and of his discriminating remarks on the condition of the blind, James Mitchell, Laurs Bridgeman, and others, are replete with profound thought on the interesting phenomenon presented in the progress of their mental training."—Christian observer.
